Corporate Communication

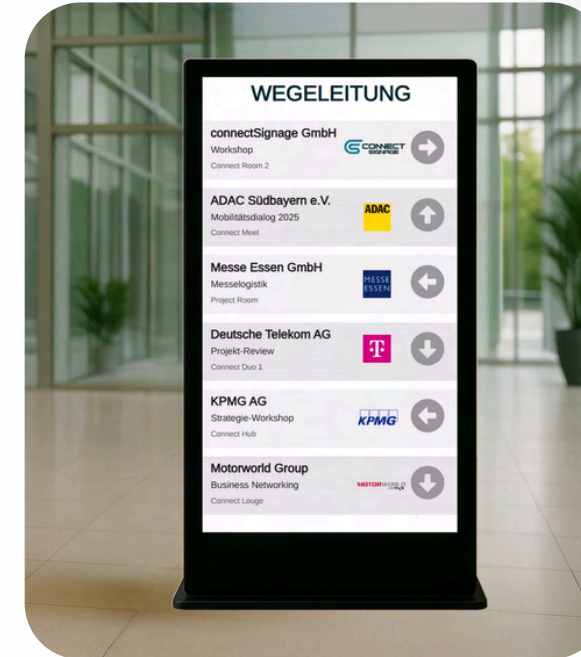

Unified communications

All content is delivered reliably to every screen.
Across locations, without manual effort.

Greater efficiency & time savings

Updates in seconds replace paper notices and manual coordination—and reduce the workload for teams and reception.

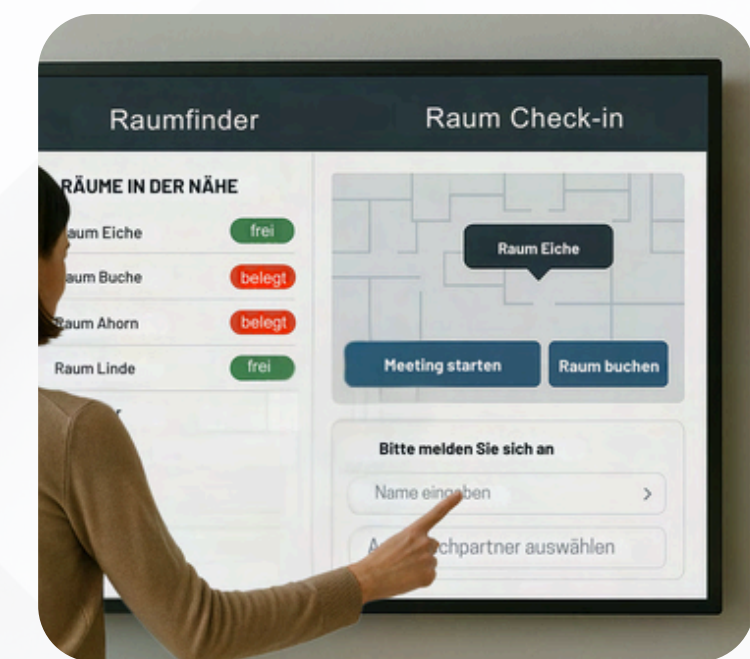

Modern look & easier navigation

A modern appearance improves the comprehension of information and provides orientation via digital signage.

Stronger employee loyalty & transparency of information

Information reaches EVERYONE—even employees without a PC workstation in production, logistics, or service.

Retail

Greater visibility & awareness

Digital content is more eye-catching than static posters, thereby increasing traffic, relevance, and impulse purchases in the store.

Quick promo & price updates

Daily promotions and price changes are rolled out in seconds, without any manual effort.

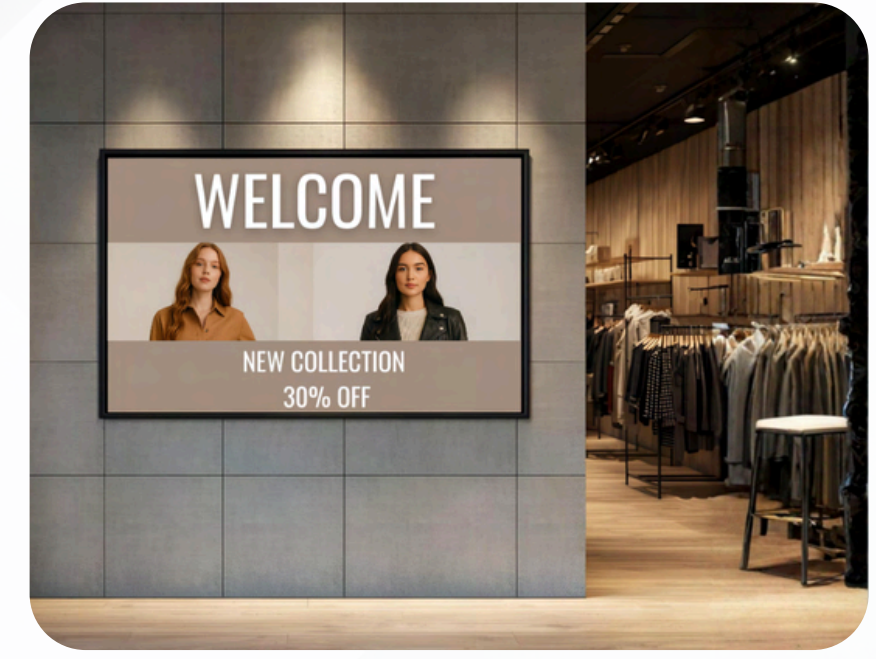

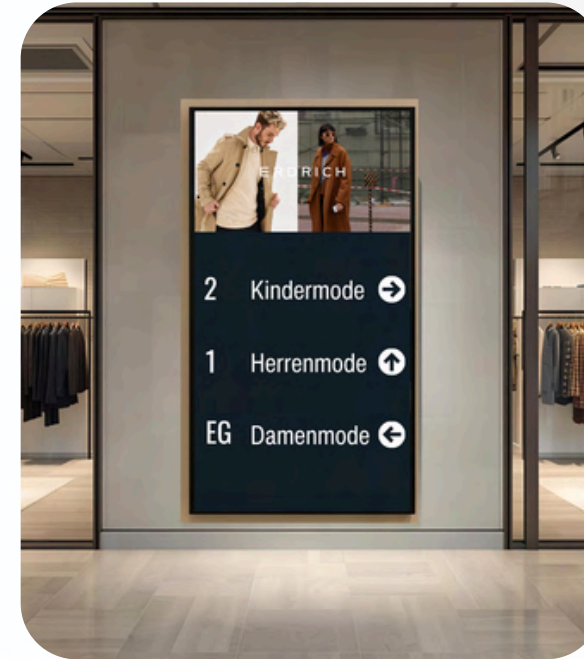

Consistent branch communication

All branches receive centralized, brand-compliant content without printing costs or manual posting.

Stronger brand image at the point of sale

Modern displays promote brand, quality, and professional image directly where purchasing decisions are made.

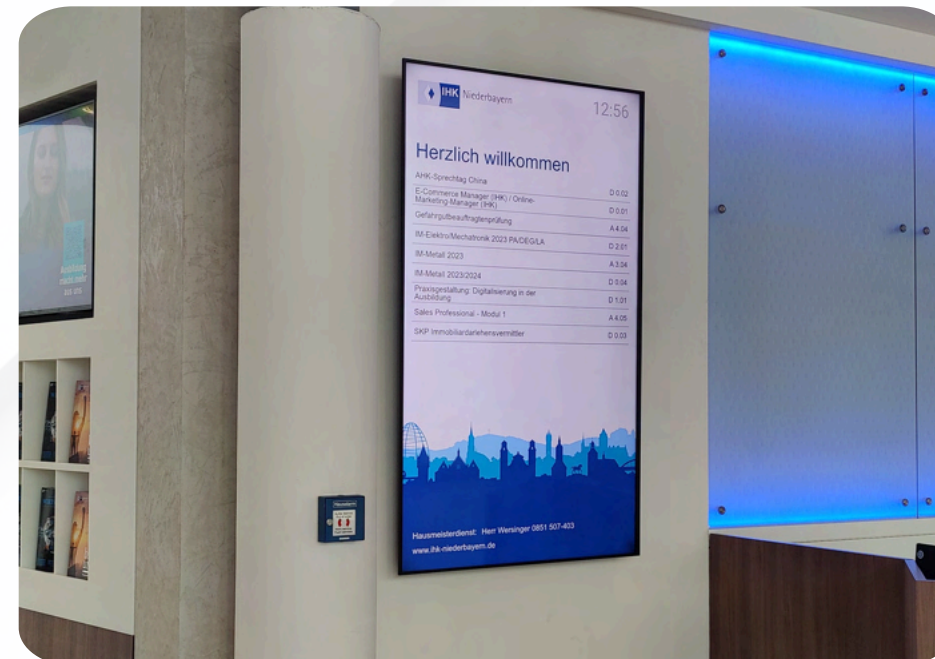

Use cases in action
